Discussion (Including Relationship to other Council Actions)

The draft of the ordinance was recommended by the Electrical Code Task Force. That group, comprised of electrical engineers and owners of residential, commercial, and industrial electrical contracting companies, met 11 times to formulate the proposed legislation. The ordinance was reviewed by the Code Study Committee, and was given public hearing April 12, 2011. After review of the document the following amendments were voted on and approved. To amend Section 23.10.290 as it relates to alternate energy systems plan submissions, and amend Section 23.10.520 relating to permit fees for electrical inverters used on alternate energy systems.
